

Articulation Agreement Between
Wisconsin Technical College System
Associate Degree and Associate in Applied Science and Concordia University Wisconsin
Baccalaureate Degrees

I. Introduction

This school-to school articulation agreement establishes a formal agreement between all Wisconsin Technical College System institutions and Concordia University Wisconsin. It is based on a review and analysis of curriculum from the schools in the Wisconsin Technical College System in relation to the Baccalaureate curricula at Concordia University Wisconsin. This agreement will facilitate the transfer of credits earned by qualified students of the Wisconsin Technical College System into a Baccalaureate degree program at Concordia University Wisconsin by guaranteeing the transferability of academic coursework that constitutes part of the successful completion of an Associate Degree or an Associate in Applied Science degree from a Wisconsin Technical College System institution.

II. Terms of the Agreement

- A. Qualified students who meet admission criteria of Concordia University Wisconsin and are admitted under the Advanced Transfer Core, are guaranteed transferability of academic coursework of up to 84 credits of a C- or above earned at a Wisconsin Technical College System institution.
- B. Qualified students are those who have successfully completed the Associate or Associate in Applied Science degree.
- C. If a qualified student has transferred credits into a Wisconsin Technical College System institution, and those credits form a part of the Wisconsin Technical College System institution's degree, a transcript from the original school must also be submitted and evaluated separately.
 - 1. To earn a baccalaureate degree the student must earn a minimum total of 120 credits and comply with all graduation requirements as specified in the Concordia University Wisconsin Academic Catalog for undergraduate programs. Students must complete and satisfy the program residency requirements at Concordia University Wisconsin.*
- E. Students who fail to meet the requirements outlined in point B are not guaranteed transferability of all the coursework as set forth in this agreement. Their credits will be evaluated on an individual basis.
- F. Some academic programs at Concordia University Wisconsin have more pre-requisites or higher GPA requirements than others. As such, students wishing to major in these program with additional requirements will have their credits evaluated on an individual basis.

II The Agreement

This agreement becomes effective upon the signatures of both parties and shall continue in effect unless either party wishes to void the agreement. The agreement may be voided only in writing; termination of the agreement should become effective sixty (60) days after written notice is given. The Wisconsin Technical College System and Concordia University Wisconsin will consider in good faith any amendments proposed by either party; however, the agreement may only be amended in writing, signed by all parties.
